

AJDA ÇARÇANI

MSC

CAREER OVERVIEW

MSc. Ajda Çarçani is a Lecturer in the Department of Architecture at the Faculty of Applied Sciences and Creative Industries

FIELDS OF EXPERTISE

- Architectural Design, Urban Design, Energy Efficiency

EMAIL

a.carcani@umb.edu.al

BIO

MSc. Ajda Çarçani is a member of Adriapol and coordinator of the Open Forums, as well as responsible for coordinating the Energy Audit Program at Barleti University.

She is a participant in many projects supported by the European Union with domestic and foreign donors. Currently holds the position of Reehub Plus project manager at the BIRD Institute, which aims to raise awareness on energy efficiency in public buildings within the Italy - Albania - Montenegro Program area, through a distribution network, enabling the training of managers and building auditors for energy efficiency measures.

He completed his higher studies in Architecture at the Polytechnic University of Tirana at the Faculty of Architecture and Urbanism.

She has completed postgraduate studies in the field of Energy Efficiency, as well as numerous trainings in this field. Has a long professional experience as an architect mainly in the field of interior and lecturer with experience in the field of design and architectural composition. Invited several times as a lecturer at the Polytechnic University of Bari, within the Erasmus + program of the European Commission.

Participated in many national and international conferences.